

SUPPORTING INCLUSIVE PRACTICES WITH CHILDREN

The Conscious Kid

"They are an education, research, and policy organization dedicated to equity and promoting positive racial identity development in youth." They provide a great list of books that can support conversations around race, racism and resistance.

VISIT
WEBSITE

RESilience

VISIT
WEBSITE

"RES is a process through which parents influence children's racial identity and self-concept, beliefs about the way the world works." The website provides an abundance of resource to support parents including tips and book guides.

Something Happened in our Town

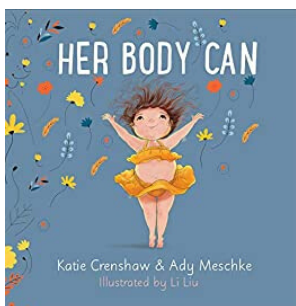

Story Time, is a Niagara Falls Underground Railroad Heritage Center program and Atlantis School For Gifted Youngsters produced series that highlights children's books that are inspiring, empowering and educational. This link provides viewers with a reading of one of their books!

Her Body Can

"Her body is beautiful—strong, kind and wise. All bodies are lovely no matter their size." This incredible book shares with children that you should love yourself just the way you are! *Coming soon His Body Can!

VISIT
WEBSITE

@SameSexParents

"Connecting. Inspiring. Empowering. A safe space providing a voice & visibility for LGBTQ+ families" We came across their Instagram account and they have an amazing list of LGBTQ+ children's books that feature Black characters (just scroll down to the post from June 10th)

VISIT
BLOG

LT